

ABOUT THE BOOK

This book is written to help you live a life of blamelessness and holiness in the Christian ministry and administration among God's people. As a faithful leader over the people of God in any area of Christian service, including management of Church finance and assets, God expects you to give a true account to Him, and if required to men also. Read through this book prayerfully, asking for grace to practice the instructions and scriptural commands outlined in it. May the Lord keep you blameless and holy in the ministry till He comes. Amen.
